

UML interface key: ○ Provided interface (lollipop / service offered by provider) ◖ Required interface (socket / service consumed by client)
Each I1–I7 label identifies an assembly connection between a required service and the matching provided service.
Solid labelled connectors show API/event data flow; dashed <<use>> dependencies show database access.